ADAM E. TO EACH SUBMIT AN APPLICATION TO PROCEED IN FORMA
PAUPERIS, OR PAY THE $402.00 FILING
FEE, IN THEIR SEPARATE/INDIVIDUAL CASES

ORDER FOR CLERK TO REFLECT ON THE COURT'S DOCKET THAT PLAINTIFF ADAM E. HAS BEEN TERMINATED FROM THIS CASE

I. BACKGROUND

Kennedy Robinson and Adam E. (“Plaintiffs”) are state prisoners proceeding pro se with this civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. On September 29, 2021, Plaintiffs and one Co-plaintiff, Marvin Harris, filed the Complaint commencing this action. (ECF No. 1.) On July 26, 2022, Co-plaintiff Marvin Harris was dismissed from this case for his failure to obey a court order. (ECF No. 12.) As a result, Plaintiffs Kennedy Robinson and Adam E. are now the only Plaintiffs in this case. Neither of the Plaintiffs has paid the filing fee for this action, or submitted an application to proceed in forma pauperis.

II. SEVERANCE OF CLAIMS

After reviewing the Complaint, the Court has determined that each Plaintiff should proceed separately on his own claims. Rule 21 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that “[o]n motion or on its own, the court may at any time, on just terms, add or drop a party . . . [or] sever any claim against a party.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 21. Courts have broad discretion regarding severance. See Coleman v. Quaker Oats Co., 232 F.3d 1271, 1297 (9th Cir. 2000); Maddox v. County of Sacramento, No. 2:06-cv-0072-GEB-EFB, 2006 WL 3201078, *2 (E.D.Cal. Nov. 6, 2006).

In the Court’s experience an action brought by multiple plaintiffs proceeding pro se in which one or more of the plaintiffs are incarcerated presents procedural problems that cause delay and confusion. Delay often arises from the frequent transfer of inmates to other facilities or institutions, the changes in address that occur when inmates are released on parole, and the difficulties faced by inmates who attempt to communicate with each other and other unincarcerated individuals. Further, the need for all plaintiffs to agree on all filings made in this action, and the need for all filings to contain the original signatures of all plaintiffs will lead to delay and confusion. Therefore, Plaintiffs’ claims are ordered to be severed. Plaintiff Kennedy Robinson shall proceed as the sole plaintiff in this case, and a new case shall be opened for Plaintiff Adam E.. Gaffney v. Riverboat Serv. of Indiana, 451 F.3d 424, 441 (7th Cir. 2006). Each Plaintiff shall be solely responsible for prosecuting his own separate case.

Since the claims of the Plaintiffs will be severed, each of the Plaintiffs shall be given thirty days to file, in his own action, an amended complaint. Under Rule 15(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, leave to amend “shall be freely given when justice so requires.” Plaintiffs must each demonstrate in their individual amended complaints how the conditions complained of resulted in a deprivation of their constitutional rights. See Ellis v. Cassidy, 625 F.2d 227 (9th Cir. 1980). Each Plaintiff must set forth “sufficient factual matter . . . to ‘state a claim that is plausible on its face.’” Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678 (quoting Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555, 127 S.Ct. 1955, 1964-65 (2007)); Moss v. U.S. Secret Service, 572 F.3d 962, 969 (9th Cir. 2009). The mere possibility of misconduct falls short of meeting this plausibility standard. Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 679; Moss, 572 F.3d at 969. Each amended complaint must specifically state how each named Defendant is involved. Each Plaintiff must demonstrate that each Defendant personally participated in the deprivation of his own rights. Jones, 297 F.3d at 934 (emphasis added).

Each of the Plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaints may not exceed 25 pages, including the pages in the form complaint and any exhibits. If typewritten, the First Amended Complaints must be double-spaced. Under federal notice pleading, a complaint is required to contain “a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief . . . .” Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2). “Such a statement must simply give defendant fair notice of what the plaintiff’s claim is and the grounds upon which it rests.” Id. The federal rules contemplate brevity. See Galbraith v. County of Santa Clara, 307 F.3d 1119, 1125 (9th Cir. 2002) (noting that “nearly all of the circuits have now disapproved any heightened pleading standard in cases other than those governed by Rule 9(b)”; Fed. R. Civ. P. 84; cf. Rule 9(b) (setting forth rare exceptions to simplified pleading).

The original Complaint in this case is 39 pages long. Rule 8(a) requires a plaintiff to set forth his or her claims in short and plain terms, simply, concisely, and directly. See Swierkiewicz v. Sorems N.A., 534 U.S. 506, 514 (2002) (“Rule 8(a) is the starting point of a simplified pleading system, which was adopted to focus litigation on the merits of a claim.”); Fed. R. Civ. P. 8. The Court (and each defendant) should be able to read and understand Plaintiff’s pleading within minutes. McHenry v. Renne, 84 F.3d 1172, 1179–80 (9th Cir. 1996).

1 The original Complaint for this action fails to comport with Rule 8(a)'s requirement for
2 "a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." The
3 lengthy narrative in the original Complaint does not clearly or succinctly allege facts against the
4 named defendants. Twenty-five pages, including the pages in the form complaint and any
5 exhibits, is more than sufficient for each Plaintiff to identify his claims and set forth specific
6 facts in support of those claims. Furthermore, if typewritten, the First Amended Complaint
7 must be double-spaced.

8 With respect to exhibits, while they are permissible, Fed. R. Civ. P. 10(c), they are not
9 necessary in the federal system of notice pleading, Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a). The Court strongly
10 suggests to Plaintiffs that they should not be submitted where (1) they serve only to confuse the 11 record and burden the Court, or (2) they are intended as future evidence. If Plaintiffs' cases reach
12 a juncture at which the submission of evidence is appropriate and necessary (e.g., summary 13 judgment or trial), they will have the opportunity at that time to submit their evidence.

14 Plaintiffs Kennedy Robinson and Adam E. shall each be required to either submit an 15 application to proceed in forma pauperis, or pay the $402.00 filing fee for his own case, within 16 thirty days.

17 Plaintiffs should note that although they have been given the opportunity to amend, it is 18 not for the purpose of adding new defendants for unrelated claims. In addition, Plaintiffs have 19 not been granted leave to include allegations of events occurring after the initiation of this suit
20 on September 29, 2021.

21 Finally, Plaintiffs are advised that Local Rule 220 requires that an amended complaint be
22 complete in itself without reference to any prior pleading. As a general rule, an amended
23 complaint supersedes the original complaint. See Loux v. Rhay, 375 F.2d 55, 57 (9th Cir. 1967).
24 Once an amended complaint is filed, the original complaint no longer serves any function in the 25 case. Therefore, in an amended complaint, as in an original complaint, each claim and the 26 involvement of each defendant must be sufficiently alleged. Each amended complaint should be
27 clearly and boldly titled "First Amended Complaint," refer to the appropriate case number, and 28 be an original signed under penalty of perjury.

III. CONCLUSION AND ORDER
